HANNA HAS OHIO ALL HIS OWN WAY

Foraker Sends Orders for His Forces to Draw Off to One Side.

STATE COMMITTEE LOST.

National Chairman Owns It Now and Fixes the Coming Convention to Suit Himself.

MCKINLEY PROMISES HIS AID.

His Friend Hanna Must Be Indorsed for the Senate, Even if the President Has to Pay the Buckeye State a Visit.

Columbus, Ohio, May 7.—Mark Hanna had everything his own way in Ohio politics today. The Republican State Committee met to fix the time and place for the convention that is expected to indorse Hanna for Senator. One year ago this committee was a Foraker-Bushnell organization. To-day Mark Hanna's hand was on the lever. He is the present owner by a vote of 15 to 1.

The convention was ordered to be held at Toledo, the city chosen by Hanna three weeks ago, but he compromised with Bushnell as to time. Hanna wanted the convention on June 2, Bushnell wanted it in August. They agreed on June 22 and 23, but this was really another victory for Hanna.

Never in recent Ohio history has the meeting of the Republican State Committee aroused so much interest or temper. Congressman Grosvenor came from Washington to act as a member of the committee, and no man is more despised by Foraker, Kurtz and Bushnell than is Grosvenor.

Secretary Dick on Hand, Too.
Charles Dick, Secretary of the National Committee, came on to deliver Mark Hanna's orders. Dick is also commander with the Foraker crowd. Grosvenor came direct from the White House with promises from President McKinley.

The vote for location indicated also that Mark Hanna has made his deal with George Cox, the Cincinnati boss. Durr and Fagin, the two Cincinnati members, voted at Hanna's dictation for Toledo. Heretofore the Cincinnati members have been on the other side.

The alliance between Cox and Hanna will lose Hanna the Senate. The investigation of Cox in Cincinnati, now going on, reveals crookedness worse than that of Boss Tweed. Several Cox officials and appointees have been indicted, and Cox has gone on their bond.

McKinley Ready to Help.
President McKinley is said to be wonderfully wrought up over the hard fight being waged for Hanna, and will come to Ohio to help if his coming can do any good. The tip was given out to-day that the President will probably visit Chillicothe, Ohio, during the second week in June. Ostensibly he will do so to attend the State G. A. R. meeting, but his real purpose will be to arouse the Administration following in the State the week before the Toledo convention.

There was such an act down by the Foraker fellows in today's proceedings that they are suspected. The word came from Foraker to let Hanna have his own way. In fact, Foraker believes in letting Hanna have rope enough for a first-class strangling, which will take place at the November election.

To-night among visiting politicians there is a general concession that Hanna will be indorsed for Senator by the Toledo gathering. The anti-Hanna men insist that such action will lose the State. They are in favor of it, for they want him beaten.

The Ohio Democrats, much encouraged by Republican wrangling, have also arranged for an early convention. Chairman Durbine to-day called a meeting of the Democratic State Committee for May 18 to fix time and place for a convention. It will probably be held the week following the Republican affair.

University Treasurer Arrested.
Washington, May 7.—Robert H. Martin, formerly treasurer of the Columbian University, of this city, was arrested today and taken to the police court on charges of embezzling funds of the university. The complaint was made by President Wilson, of Columbian University, and Trustees Woodward and Green. The defaulter is placed at $2,500. Martin was released on $5,000 security.

Death of Centennarians.
Beverton, Ont., May 7.—W. W. Malan died yesterday, aged to-day his wife also died. The former was one hundred years old, while the latter was one hundred and two. They had been married nearly eighty years.

PRICE OF GAS REDUCED BY LAW.

Governor Black Signs the Bill and Astonishes
Mayor Strong.

FIVE CUTS PROVIDED.

Annual Drops of Five Cents Until in 1901 the Price Will Be One Dollar.

An Albany dispatch yesterday announced that Governor Black had affixed his signature to the "graduated" gas bill passed by the last Legislature.

Mayor Strong had advertised a hearing on the bill for yesterday afternoon, and he was very much astonished when shown a dispatch announcing the action of the Governor. The Mayor said it was purely a local bill, as no other city in the State had a population of over 1,500,000. No one appeared at the hearing and the Mayor resolved the measure to Albany last night with his approval.

The bill fixes the price of gas to private consumers at $1.20 for the remainder of this year, $1.15 in 1898, $1.10 in 1899, $1.05 in 1900, and $1 in 1901 and each year thereafter. The price to the city is fixed at $1 for the remainder of this year, and with an annual reduction of 2 1/2 cents until 1901, when 50 cents will be reached, which will be the price to the city that year and each year thereafter. According to the bill the act went into effect on May 1, and the gas companies will probably have to give a rebate from that date.

The gas companies intimated yesterday that a reduction in the number of men employed or in the rate of wages might follow. Gas makers in this city are paid from $2.50 to $2.75 a day.

"The law will decrease the gross receipts of our company," declared "Coney George W. Doane, of the Consolidated Gas Company, yesterday, "and there will be a much greater decrease in our net receipts.
This will amount to hundreds of thousands of dollars, and will be felt."

"When will you inaugurate the new rate?" was asked.
"Immediately. The law reads that the rates shall take effect on May 1. As that was several days ago, it seems to me that a rebate from that date will have to be given. The only way in which the companies could make up their losses by reason of this law would be to reduce wages. We pay our men the market price of wages, which is greater in New York than in smaller cities, as it costs a man more to live here. I do not see that there will be any reduction in wages, however, as the matter has not been discussed."

"We will take pains to see that the people know that the price of gas has been reduced, and there may be an increase in the quantity of gas used, as people may use more for heating and cooking purposes than they have been in the habit of doing under the old rate."

THE WORLD HAS HAD SOME great Encyclopedias—Arabian scholars probably made the first, away back before the Eighteenth Century dawned.
Then just prior to 1789 the French savans brought out two—based on the views of rival schools of philosophy.
And then came the great English Encyclopedias. From them have sprung the rest, until the land has been flooded with Encyclopedias that failed to meet the needs of Americans near the dawn of the Twentieth Century.
